Jhereg Vlad Taltos 1 Steven

Jhereg is the tale of Vlad Taltos, an assassin who is a foreigner to his area, but has moved himself up in the organization of the Jhereg. Along with his companions, and his familiar Loiosh, a poisonous flying creature that he communicates with telepathically. Vlad is a sorcerer as well, capable of using his discouraged foreign magics to his power.

Jhereg (Vlad Taltos, #1) by Steven Brust

These stories recount the life of Vlad Taltos, a human living in a world dominated by sorcery using elves. The world depicted is very different from typical fantasies, and Vlad has to deal with discrimination because of both being human and being a member of the Jhereg (an elvish type of mafia).

First, before I offend some Steven Brust fans, I did find this novel reasonably entertaining. But geez, I wanted to like it a whole lot more than I did. I loved the concept - a series of books about Vlad Taltos, an assassin on the world of Dragaera. Vlad is an "easterner", or human, who is a member of one of the Dragaeran

"Houses" - the Jhereg.

I have Jhereg on paperback at home, but was hit with a sudden craving for Vlad (teehee) at the airport and was hoping to read it in-flight — I don't think there's a higher compliment I can pay an author, Steven, your books are brilliant! — but alas, Jhereg still appears unavailable electronically, at least on Kindle.

Jhereg

Jhereg is the first book in the "Vladimir Taltos" series, and introduces the character and his world. It is a highly entertaining comic fantasy. The first part of the book includes a brief account of Vlad's boyhood, and the story of how he acquires the live Jhereg egg which hatches into his familiar and constant companion Loiosh.
